

YouTube presentations, 2021 to 2024, by Speaker (Listing by topic follows)

(2025 presentations can be accessed from the Meetings and events page on our website)

Annual General Meeting 2022. You can watch the meeting here and the update on the Murney Tower from Dr. Tabitha Renaud, the Tower's Director, and Simge Erdogan-O'Connor, the Manager and Curator, with the latest news on what activities been happening, and the plans for 2023 here The Financial Statements for 2022 are here The 2023 AGM document is here

Annual General Meeting 2024. The Agenda is here . The YouTube video is here. The Financial Statement for 2023 is here. The new By Law #2, approved in September, is here

Banks, Dr. Robert: “Warriors and Warships: Conflict on the Great Lakes and the Legacy of Point Frederick”: Dr. Robert Banks’ talk is available in audio here starting at 20 minutes. The talk continues here The sound quality is not great, but your ear will get used to the echo!

Barrett, Dr. Matthew: “Graphic art – cartooning – to convey historical narrative and analysis” You can watch the presentation here

Brinklow, Nathan: "Mohawk Language Loss and Recovery". You can watch the presentation here

Cahill, Barry: “Icarus Revisited: The Short Life and Tragic Death of Norman McLeod Rogers”. You can watch the presentation here

Cook, Dr. Tim: “Forgetting, Remembering and Remaking Canada’s Second World War.” You can watch the presentation here

Cosby, Victoria: “Kingston through Her Eyes: Harriett Dobbs Cartwright and Her Adopted Home” as part of the Society’s celebration of Heritage Month in Kingston. You can watch the presentation here

Cuthbertson, Ken: "When the Ponies Ran". You can watch the presentation here

Dueck Professor Gordon: “Barbers in Blackface? African-Canadian Musicians in Fin-de-Siecle Kingston.” You can watch the presentation here The original recordings are lost but the sheet music survives and one can find renditions of the songs from "In Dahomey" on YouTube at

https://youtu.be/Mki\_FLAMnXc?si=BKCBi0DnV71Uu7Q5

<https://youtu.be/Gnf-tja58-g?si=AGNQQEn-d1cd7OaJ>

https://youtu.be/KnM\_IAMnI4?si=OXRc7Mj3PPa9RBtk

Engen, Dr. Robert: "Weathering the Storm: Health Protection and the Canadian Corps during the Pandemic of 1918". You can watch the presentation here

Fogarty, Catherine: "Murder on the Inside: the 1971 KP Riot". You can watch the presentation here

Gagnon, Eric: "Two Miles, Two Tracks, Two Railways, To Obscurity." You can watch the presentation here

Galbraith, William: "John Buchan: Model Governor General." You can watch the presentation here

Gordon, David and Sara Wehbi: "Mayor Clifford Curtis: Queen's Economist and Municipal Reformer" You can watch the presentation here

Gower, Peter: "The changing attitude to memorializing our war dead, 1800 - 2022". You can watch the presentation here

Gower Peter: "The ups and downs of the Kingston Historical Society's first 131 years ... and the future?" You can watch the presentation here

Grenville, John: "The Market Battery". You can watch the presentation here

Grenville, John: "Ernest R. Beckwith (1879-1963)." You can watch the presentation here

Home, Heather & Janice McAlpine: "Community Archiving: the Kingston LGBTQ Archives as Collaborative Model." You can watch the presentation here

Immerseel, John: "For a Better Life: Post-War Dutch Immigration to Canada with special reference to the prominent Dutch community resident in Kingston". You can watch the presentation here

MacDonald, Kaitlyn: "Dark Tourism" You can watch the presentation here

McAlpine Janice, see Heather Home

McCulloch, Ian Macpherson: "John Bradstreet's Raid 1758". You can watch the presentation here

McDowall, Dr. Duncan: "Edward Peacock finds Fame and Fortune in London". You can watch the presentation here

McDowall, Dr. Duncan and the 2023 Sir John A Macdonald memorial service can be watched here

Reid, James and Sarah: "The Story of the James Reid Funeral Home" You can watch the presentation here

Renaud, Dr. Tabitha: “Without Words: The Communication Barrier between Indigenous Peoples and the Earliest European Explorers in North America.” You can watch the presentation here

Ross, Margaret ‘Your Town is Rotten’: Prostitution, Profit and the Governing of Vice in Kingston, Ontario, 1860-1920s, You can watch the presentation here

Roy, Graeme: "How the telegraph connected Canadians in the early years of Confederation". You can watch the presentation here

Segal, Hugh and the 2021 Sir John A Macdonald Commemorative Service from Cataraqui Cemetery. You can watch the presentation here

Seguin, Marc: "The Lighthouses of Kingston: Guiding Ships through the Graveyard of Lake Ontario, 1828 to 1914". You can watch the presentation here

Sinclair, Murray and the 2022 Sir John A Macdonald memorial service. You can watch the presentation here

Smith, Maurice: "The Calvin Company four-masted barque". You can watch the presentation here

Smith, Dr. Stephen: “Macdonald's Four Lives at Bellevue House”. (The 2024 Sir John A Macdonald Commemorative Service). You can watch the commemoration here

Wehbi, Sara, see David Gordon

West, Chris, presented "The SS Keewatin comes to Kingston". You can watch the presentation here You will also enjoy "Making Murdoch: Murdoch Ahoy" which shows the SS Keewatin as used in an episode of 'Murdoch Mysteries'. You can watch the presentation here

YouTube presentations, 2021 to 2024, by Topic. Listing by speaker precedes)

(2025 presentations can be accessed from the Meetings and events page on our website)

Barbers in Blackface: Professor Gordon Dueck : “Barbers in Blackface? African-Canadian Musicians in Fin-de-Siecle Kingston.” You can watch the presentation here The original recordings are lost but the sheet music survives and one can find renditions of the songs from "In Dahomey" on YouTube at https://youtu.be/Mki\_FLAMnXc?si=BKCBI0DnV71Uu7Q5

<https://youtu.be/Gnf-tja58-g?si=AGNQQEn-d1cd7OaJ>
https://youtu.be/KnM\_IAMnl4?si=OXRc7Mj3PPa9RBTk

Beckwith, Ernest R.: John Grenville: Ernest R. Beckwith (1879-1963), You can watch the presentation here

Bradstreet's, Raid 1758: Ian Macpherson McCulloch: John Bradstreet's Raid 1758. You can watch the presentation here

Buchan, John: William Galbraith: John Buchan: Model Governor General You can watch the presentation here

Calvin Company: Maurice Smith: "The Calvin Company four-masted barque". You can watch the video here

Cartwright, Harriett Dobbs: Victoria Cosby: "Kingston through Her Eyes: Harriett Dobbs Cartwright and Her Adopted Home". You can watch the presentation here

Communication Barrier: Dr. Tabitha Renaud: "Without Words: The Communication Barrier between Indigenous Peoples and the Earliest European Explorers in North America." You can watch the presentation here

Curtis, Mayor Clifford: Gordon David and Sara Wehbi: "Mayor Clifford Curtis: Queen's Economist and Municipal Reformer" You can watch the presentation here

Dark Tourism: Kaitlyn MacDonald talked on "Dark Tourism" You can watch the presentation here

Dutch Immigration: John Immerseel: "For a Better Life: Post-War Dutch Immigration to Canada with special reference to the prominent Dutch community resident in Kingston". You can watch the presentation here

Graphic art: Dr. Matthew Barrett: "Graphic art – cartooning – to convey historical narrative and analysis" You can watch the presentation here

Health Protection: Dr. Robert Engen: "Weathering the Storm: Health Protection and the Canadian Corps during the Pandemic of 1918". You can watch the presentation here

James Reid Funeral Home, The Story of the: James and Sarah Reid: "The Story of the James Reid Funeral Home" You can watch the presentation here

Keewatin, The SS: Chris West presented "The SS Keewatin comes to Kingston". You can watch the presentation here You will also enjoy "Making Murdoch: Murdoch Ahoy" which shows the SS Keewatin as used in an episode of 'Murdoch Mysteries'. You can watch the presentation here

Kingston sub-division spur line:: Eric Gagnon: “Two Miles, Two Tracks, Two Railways, To Obscurity.” You can watch the presentation here

Kingston Historical Society's first 131 years ... and the future? Peter Gower: Ups and downs of the Kingston Historical Society's first 131 years ... and the future? You can watch the presentation. You can watch the presentation here

KP Riot: Catherine Fogarty: "Murder on the Inside: the 1971 KP Riot". You can watch the presentation here

LGBTQ Archives: Heather Home & Janice McAlpine: “Community Archiving: the Kingston LGBTQ Archives as Collaborative Model.” You can watch the presentation here

Lighthouses of Kingston: Marc Seguin: "The Lighthouses of Kingston: Guiding Ships through the Graveyard of Lake Ontario, 1828 to 1914". You can watch the presentation here

Macdonald Sir John A.: Murray Sinclair and the 2022 Sir John A Macdonald memorial service. You can watch the presentation here

Macdonald, Sir John A.: Dr. Duncan McDowall and the 2023 Sir John A Macdonald memorial service can be watched here

Macdonald, Sir John A.: Hugh Segal and the 2021 Sir John A Macdonald Commemorative Service from Cataraqui Cemetery. You can watch the presentation here

Macdonald's Four Lives at Bellevue House: Dr. Stephen Smith Macdonald's Four Lives at Bellevue House. You can watch the commemoration here

Market Battery, The: John Grenville talked on "The Market Battery". You can watch the presentation here

Memorializing our war dead: Peter Gower "The changing attitude to memorializing our war dead, 1800 - 2022". You can watch the presentation here

Mohawk Language: Nathan Brinklow "Mohawk Language Loss and Recovery". You can watch the presentation here

Peacock, Edward: Dr. Duncan McDowall: "Edward Peacock finds Fame and Fortune in London". You can watch the presentation here

Ponies: Ken Cuthbertson: "When the Ponies Ran". You can watch the presentation here

Prostitution: Margaret Ross ‘Your Town is Rotten’: Prostitution, Profit and the Governing of Vice in Kingston, Ontario, 1860-1920s, You can watch the presentation here

Rogers, Norman McLeod: Barry Cahill: "Icarus Revisited: The Short Life and Tragic Death of Norman McLeod Rogers ". You can watch the presentation here

Second World War: Dr. Tim Cook: “Forgetting, Remembering and Remaking Canada’s Second World War.” You can watch the presentation here

Telegraph, The: Graeme Roy presented "How the telegraph connected Canadians in the early years of Confederation". You can watch the presentation here

Warriors and Warships: Conflict on the Great Lakes and the Legacy of Point Frederick: Dr. Robert Banks’ talk is available in audio here starting at 20 minutes. The talk continues here
The sound quality is not great, but your ear will get used to the echo!